

Familiarize yourself with Iraq Reconstruction contracting procedures

Presented by

The U.S. Department of Commerce's
Export Assistance Center, Michigan District Export Council and Iraq Investment and Reconstruction Task Force in collaboration with Coalition Provisional Authority

FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATIONS VIDEOCONFERENCE

What

A videoconference to help you assess the market potential for your product/service in Iraq and how the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) affects your ability to compete.

With

John Bellizan, Director of Contract Support,
Coalitional Provisional Authority (CPA).

Where

Madonna University
Entrance C, Room 2100
36600 Schoolcraft Road
Livonia, MI 48150

When

Thursday, June 24, 2004
2:00 PM to 3:30 PM

Cost

None

Register by June 23, 2004

- Learn about the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR). The basic rulebook governing the U.S. Government contracting process.
- Find out how these rules apply to companies seeking U.S. Government contracts for Iraq Reconstruction.
- Receive a general overview and insights from a leading expert in U.S. Government procurement regulations.

Register Now!

Name: _____

Title: _____

Company: _____

Tel: _____

Fax: _____

E-Mail: _____

Website: _____

Please complete this form & fax to:

Pontiac Export Assistance Center
U.S. Department of Commerce
* Fax: 248-975-9606 ****

SPACE IS LIMITED!!!

Questions? Call: 248-975-9600 or email:
intern.pontiac@mail.doc.gov

Directions

Madonna University is located east of the junction of I-275 and I-96 (Jeffries Freeway). Exit I-96 at Levan Road, turn north on Levan to the first Madonna University parking lot. Enter at Entrance "C", the Television Studio entrance, go up the stairs to the second level, Room 2100 is down the hall on the left.